

AZBUKA EL LTD brings to your attention the review of the popular foreign and domestic technical literature in the field of the Electric Power industry. Last editions in the field of Generation, Transmission and Distributions, books about modern grids in the Russia and worldwide including most vital topics: SMART GRID, digital relay protection, renewable energy, forecasts and prospects of the world of power energy. Classical and academic publications, the theory and practice from the best authors and guru. You can find all books reviews of and the complete literature list on the page Literature for Professionals .